Rules and Release

Rules

1. The Baltimore Screenwriters Competition is open to all screenwriters.
2. Screenplays must be set in Baltimore or 75% filmable in Baltimore.
3. Scripts must be written in US Motion Picture industry standard format; typed in 12 pt. Courier font; printed on white paper; bound with brass fasteners; cardstock covers.
FEATURE FILM SCRIPTS: Aproximately 85-120 pages
SHORT FILM SCRIPTS: Must not exceed 30 pages.

For more details on standard formatting, please visit
<http://www.goasa.com/scriptformatting.shtml>.

4. Each entry must consist of one hard copy and one electronic copy or three hard copies of the screenplay. Entries with less than three hard copies or no electronic copy will not be accepted for consideration.
5. To assure your scripts anonymity through the judging process, please do not put your name or other identifying information (address, script registration number, etc.) on the title page or anywhere in your script.
6. An entry form and entry fee must accompany each screenplay.
7. Submissions for the 2016 Competition will not be accepted after 5:00 PM Wednesday, January 20, 2016.
8. Scripts under option or sold are not eligible.
9. Revisions and substitution of new drafts for entries received will not be accepted under any circumstances.
10. Two or more authors as co-applicants may submit a screenplay. Division of the award will be the sole responsibility of the winners.
11. More than one screenplay may be submitted by the same author(s). However, a separate completed and signed Entry Form and Entry Fee must accompany each submission.
12. The screenplay submissions must be the original work of the applicant and may not be based, in whole or in part, on any other work for which the writer does not own the rights. We will not accept adaptations unless they comply with the above.
13. Prizes are non-transferable
14. The act of signing and submitting an Entry Form constitutes acceptance without reservation of all rules and requirements of the Baltimore Screenwriters Competition and all decisions rendered by its judges.

Release

1. I/We have read all the rules and regulations, and understand, and have accepted and complied with these rules.
2. I/We warrant the submission is my/our original work and that there are no disputes regarding the ownership of the submission.
3. I/We also warrant the submitted material does not defame or invade the rights of any person living or dead. I/We fully indemnify the Baltimore Screenwriters Competition and Baltimore Office of Promotion & The Arts, the Baltimore Screenwriters Competition Advisory Committee, its board, sponsors, employees, members, volunteers, and other affiliates against any claim for such violations of law.
4. I/We understand that failure to adhere to the Baltimore Screenwriters Competition rules and regulations will result in disqualification and forfeiture of my entry fee.
5. I understand that I have entered my screenplay in a screenwriting competition, and further understand that winning the Baltimore Screenwriters Competition does not guarantee that my screenplay will be purchased or produced by others.
6. I/We agree to hold the Baltimore Office of Promotion & The Arts, and the Baltimore Screenwriters Competition, its Advisory Committee, judges, sponsors employees, members, volunteers and other affiliates harmless from and defend them against all claims, demands, losses, damages, judgments, liabilities and expenses (including attorney's fees) arising out of or in connection with any and all claims of third parties, whether or not groundless, based on any screenplay/film submitted to the Baltimore Screenwriters Competition or on any screenplay/film product developed out of such submission.
7. I have retained at least one copy of my submission, and understand that my submission may not be returned to me.
8. To the best of my/our knowledge, all of the statements herein are true and correct.
